

For the 8th year in a row, we are proud to announce A.M Best's affirmation of our A- Financial Strength Rating. This excellent FSR grading from the global prestigious A.M. Best rating agency highlights the strength of our balance sheet, exceptional operational performance, and effective risk management strategies.

We take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks to our respected board of directors for their support, ADNTC's management & staff for their dedication and of course, our shareholders and customers for their trust in our business model.
